

Here’s how I will work with you.

- Continued availability of Regional Director through Gumboot Office Hours.
- Communication through BootTales mailouts, website, and social media.
- Attendance at Official Community Plan Committee, Roberts Creek Community Association, Advisory Planning Committee meetings, other public meetings, hearings and local events.
- Foster the energy, creativity and industry of the young, and learn from the wisdom of elders.
- Do my homework.

Background information

Mark Lebbell has been a resident of Roberts Creek since 2000. He and his partner Kaia have two children at Roberts Creek Elementary. After obtaining degrees in Political Science and Education, Mark taught in the public school system for 5 years. For the last 15 years he has been a Sustainability Educator, mostly with Sea to Sky Outdoor School, a small company based in Gibsons. He sat on the Official Community Plan Committee for 8 years, spending 2 years as Vice Chair. His advocacy work has been focused around Education and Transportation.

A musician, a traveler, a paddler, a cyclist and a proud Creeker, he values diversity, dynamic balance, and public engagement. Mark is very pleased to have the support of scholar, musician and community food organizer Chris Hergesheimer as his proposed Alternate Director.

Candidate for SCRD
Electoral Area D
Roberts Creek

“Our understandable wish to preserve the planet must somehow be reduced to the scale of our competence – that is, a commitment to build and strengthen community in our respective neighbourhoods. Love can do this. It exists by its willingness to be anonymous, humble, and unrewarded” Wendell Berry, Poet Farmer
